1. About Law Maven Legal Review Online and CPC

The Law Maven publishes a bi-monthly online journal entitled the Law Maven Legal Review-Journal Online. The online journal reviews shorter submissions and publishes articles on a rolling basis throughout the calendar year. The Law Maven Legal Review aims to be the premier source for articles concerning laws of national and global importance. We publish articles by scholars, practitioners, and policymakers. The Law Maven Legal Review is particularly focused on publishing more brief and timely articles. Recently Law Maven felt the necessity to help law students to get various opportunities including publications, paper presentation competitions and other such skill enhancing events. Law Maven aims to organise this event for the purpose of enhancing moot culture and tort subject awareness among law students.

The Consumer Protection cell was formed in early 2019 with a view to act as a bridge between victim and remedy, the cell was established under the guidance of renowned advocate of consumer laws -Adv. D.M. Mathur. From the very beginning the cell received great support from law students, later on, some non-law students also joined us in the activities. Our activities do provide the ground level exposure within the society, it empowers members with legal knowledge and provides them with the opportunity to make an actual positive impact on society. Dr. Sunita Khatana is currently serving as faculty co-ordinator of the cell.

2. About the Moot

Mooting is one of the most essential skills for any law professional. Moots Courts or Mock Trials are usually based on hypothetical cases, involving emerging or unsettled areas of law. Law students, who participate in these activities, are given the opportunity to develop their research, legal writing, and oral advocacy skills in a mock courtroom setting. Additionally, moot court presentation includes professional legal etiquettes in the students which equip them to adapt to courtroom practices.

The 1st LMLRO National Moot Court Competition, 2021 has been introduced to students pursuing the law course during these times, to try and enhance the research and advocacy skills among the coming generation of the legal fraternity. This moot will enrich the students with their research as well as mooting skill and our endeavour would be to carry forward the chain of law learning process even during this time of the pandemic.

The next lined-up event was in Clerden, Clerden is an underdeveloped country with a limited fan base of metal music. Artist insisted in shifting the location but since all the arrangements were started with, the organizers denied the request.
5. At the time of the event, a large number of residents of Clerden were infected with 'Pharyngitis'. The event was conducted on a beach of Clerdon. After the event Richard observed some issues with his throat, he decided to take some rest in his room. This wasn't the appropriate solution because sooner than later Richard had a headache and severe tonsils.

The artist said - "I signed up for this event to reach out to maximum fans of metal music, I signed up to give power to the people through our music. The Finland event was a great success, I don't know what made them treat me and my staff poorly. Clerdon was a black chapter of my career, the facilities were worst. Doctors here have told me that medicine provided in Clerdon didn't suit my body and the infection is serious. My career is on stake, maybe money is the only thing which those inhumane capitalists care about"
11. This went viral and a social media campaign was launched against the Modi Group. Triggered by the message, fans of the artist pelted stones on the property of Modi Group. Hashtags like #InhumaneModi and #BoycottModi started trending over social media.
12. This campaign led to cancellation of the whole tour of artists. The Modi group observed substantial loss of finances due to the campaign.

13. In reply, Modi Group sued Richard for breach of contract and civil defamation and Richard cross sued the group for Negligence and Medical Negligence.
