PRESIDENT'S DESK

Prof. Victor Gambhir

President, JECRC University

School of Law, JECRC University has traversed a long distance and grown in leaps and bounds to stand tall among the Law colleges of the city. In these sacrosanct premises, the sagacious educators are deftly and diligently shouldering the herculean task of grooming, chiseling, and nurturing the cherished dreams of carving dexterous and diligent global denizens.

School of Law strives hard to provide unlimited resources and vistas of opportunities to unearth the potential of our students and assist them to inch towards their dreams with swaggering confidence.

Law Students are forever entangled between challenge and inspiration. During COVID period, being unforeseen and devastating times to our students who are navigating and restoring the landscape of their journey. It has always been profoundly inspiring to observe students work collaboratively with our dedicated band of mentors to dazzle the world with their abilities and conquests.

I extend my heartfelt greetings and felicitations to every member of the School of Law, JECRC University.

DEAN & DIRECTOR'S DESK

Prof. (Dr.) Mahesh Koolwal

Ph.D, LL.M, MA (Economics),

Diploma in Russian, German and French Languages

Today teaching has undergone a sea of change from traditional to digital classrooms and the School of Law, JECRC has left no stone unturned in providing the best to its students. The elegant and ethically designed infrastructure, mammoth auditorium, well-stocked library all speak in volumes about the magnanimity of the School of Law. Catapulting to the zenith, scaling the pinnacle of success, decking the pedestal of par excellence is no cakewalk but Jecrcians have walked the tightrope with equanimity. Nothing can relegate these gritty, tenacious students with oodles of perseverance. The virtue of developing excellent lawyering skills, the School of Law deeply believes in the idea of Moot Court Competitions to engage with and think about interesting and topical legal issues to enhance their advocacy, legal research, and writing skills. Witnessing the unprecedented times, the School of Law has come up with its III National Moot Court Competition Tour.

HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT DESK

Dr. Namita Jain

Embedded deeply in the JECRC institution is the spirit of compassion, responsibility, and commitment to shaping the youth of the country with rich cultural moral values and quality education at par with the best in the state. At JECRC we try to build a cordial relationship with our students to unearth their potential and unleash their imagination. The dedicated team of erudite teachers continues to nurture the saplings with their tremendous reserves of energy, creativity, vision and cultivate in them values of forbearance, gratitude, and sportsmanship. The ambiance of the institute is imbued with the aura of character and purity of exalted thoughts that continue to spread its fragrance and linger on for eternity.

JECRC has created an enlightening Moot Court ambiance where students can demonstrate their interest in advocacy and competence as an advocate. Moot Courts can be a nerve-racking but it is a lot of fun while learning and unlearning. With this Moot Court Competitions would serve best to the interest of every law student to grow and conquer their world.

I hope together we all can continue to inspire and amuse everyone!
