

HAGUE YEARBOOK OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

ANNUAIRE DE LA HAYE DE DROIT INTERNATIONAL

Call for Papers

Volume 36 (2023)

The Hague Yearbook of International Law is now receiving submissions for publication in its upcoming Volume 36 (2023), due to be published in early 2024.

The Hague Yearbook of International Law is an internationally recognised journal with a wide-ranging and in-depth focus on various issues of international law. It aims to offer a platform for review of new developments in the field of international law. In addition, it devotes attention to developments in the international law institutions based in the international City of Peace and Justice, The Hague.

Submissions on any issues of public or private international law in either English or French language are welcomed. The Editorial Board will select articles based on their quality and relevance. Selected papers will be subject to peer-review before publication.

Most published papers are around 15,000 words, but shorter and longer pieces may also be accepted. Submissions should follow the OSCOLA style guide and should be sent to hagueyearbook@gmail.com before midnight on 1 May 2023.
